A Unique Handkerchief Store

IT was said of a great physician by one of his patients, "He always attends to my case as if I he had only that one case to think of."

We aim to sell handkerchiefs as if we sold nothing else; and we don't know of another handkerchief store in America like this one. First, no handkerchief with cotton in it gets in here at all. We make that rule because any mixture of cotton spoils a handkerchief. If you realized what it would be like after washing, you wouldn't buy it. There are more than 2,300 different styles now here. Many of these styles are exclusive, because made to our order. Wherever in the world handkerchiefs are made best, they come from that place direct to this store.

This gives us such advantages in cost that it is not uncommon to find handkerchiefs selling in other stores at double In holiday time, handkerchiefs pervade the whole store. Special styles are provided, with special places for selling. Handkerchiefs bought for gifts are neatly boxed without charge. One of the new things this season is a) A special counter for lace handkerchiefs]
